

“My dream is to . . . inspire ripples of change that break down barriers for refugees, migrants and people seeking asylum.”

— VIOLET ROUMELIOTIS

It is with great pleasure that we invite you to a very exclusive event.

‘On the Couch’ breakfast event with Violet Roumeliotis.

Violet has been CEO of one of the fastest growing organisations in Australia – Settlement Services International, working in one of the most politically charged environments, further enhanced with a recent merger with a similar organisation in Queensland.

Her work has been highly recognised, culminating in her award as the current Telstra Business Woman of the Year.

As an alumna of Executive Central’s Coaching Academy, Violet has utilised her coaching skills as a leader to bring this success across her organisation.

Location: Ovolo Inchcolm
73 Wickham Terrace, Spring Hill, Queensland

Date: Thursday 7th February

Time: 7.30am – 9am. Registration from 7am.

Per person: $49.50 + GST

Click here to book now!

This event will be supporting the NFP organisation SSI International.