As a manager, Leonie has developed several strategic change initiatives to build effective, successful and motivated teams. As a consultant, Leonie has driven innovative solutions, genuinely partnering with clients throughout the process to produce results.

Expertise:

- Strategic consultation and management of developmental leadership initiatives.
- Multinational, regional and global program management.
- Leadership and motivation of teams.
- Executive and sales leadership development.
- Change management and leadership.
- Strategic planning and mind set programs.
- Coaching for performance.

Leonie's experience includes 20 years working at individual, team and organisational level in Australia and Asia Pacific where she held senior roles in consulting, sales and general management.

As a senior executive Leonie has developed roles in organisational change and team leadership, and through challenging times each have become high performing teams. Leonie's natural ability is to build trust, inspire and align individuals, personal and business objectives.

As a consultant, Leonie spent several years in Singapore managing several successful Asia Pacific and Global high potential and leadership programs.

Leonie's role prior to joining Executive Central was a senior position in corporate mental health and wellbeing, managing a team of organisational and clinical psychologists developing mental health programs and preventative solutions for high risk workforces over a diverse client base. Leonie has a passion for innovation and has lead organisations through significant change with remarkable results. A recent project involved strategy development and implementation that resulted in a 40% reduction in costs, and innovation of new services that now accounts for 65% of annual revenue.

Leonie is an executive coach currently undertaking a Post Graduate qualification in Organisational Change and has a passion for interest- based negotiation. In her spare time she has dabbled in film, to date producing 3 short films and a documentary. One of these films screened at the Sydney Film Festival. She also loves to travel. Favourite spots would be India, Greek Islands and Cuba.
